Reply to Notice of a Non-Responsive Amendment

Commissioner for Patents PO Box 1450 Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

In reply to the Notice of Non-responsive Amendment dated December 1, 2006, it is respectfully submitted that this Notice of Non-responsive Amendment is erroneous.

The Examiner alleged in the Notice that Applicant elected ten sequences in response to the Examiner's request to elect one species of sequence.

Applicant respectfully points out to the Examiner that Applicant elected SEQ ID NO: 5 on page 1 of the last Reply, submitted on July 10, 2006 and also found on the public PAIR of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Applicant again provisionally elects SEQ ID NO: 5 for further examination of this application. Applicant respectfully requests that the Examiner reconsider the Notice of Non-responsive Amendment and that it be withdrawn.

The Examiner stated that the Examiner had already searched SEQ ID NOs: 1 and 2, and, citing MPEP §803.04, stated that the Examiner may search up to ten sequences, i.e., eight sequences in addition to SEQ ID NOs: 1 and 2. If the Examiner is willing to search up to ten sequences under MPEP §803.04, Applicant hereby elects, in addition to SEQ ID NO: 5, seven additional sequences, i.e., SEQ ID NOs: 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12, instead of the previously elected nine sequences. This election is likewise made without prejudice to or disclaimer of the other claims or inventions disclosed. Upon the identification of otherwise allowable subject matter in a generic or linking claim, Applicant also requests that the Examiner examine any remaining unelected species, according to 37 C.F.R. § 1.141(a).

Applicant reserves all rights in the non-elected species, including the right to file one or more divisional applications covering the subject matter thereof.

Applicant believes that a full and complete reply has been made to the outstanding Notice of Non-responsive Amendment. If the Examiner believes, for any reason, that personal communication will expedite prosecution of this application, the Examiner is invited to telephone the undersigned at the number provided.

Prompt and favorable consideration of this Reply is respectfully requested.

It is believed that extensions of time are not required, beyond those that may otherwise be provided for in accompanying documents. However, in the event that additional extensions of time are necessary to prevent abandonment of this application, then such extensions of time are hereby petitioned under 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a), and any fees required therefor are hereby authorized to be charged to our Deposit Account No. 19-0036.

Respectfully submitted,
